

SIDESHOW ALLEY QUOTES.

Bryce Hallet. Sydney Morning Herald.

“A knockout Aussie tale puts some life back into musicals”

“Sideshow Alley is that rarest of things in today’s conveyer belt culture, an unashamedly Australian tale replete with larrikins, show people, dry humour, slang and sentimentality”.

“...spirited and heart warming.”

“An appealing mix of stirring ballads and duets about the fickleness of love, resilience, fortune and fate.”

Linda Hassall. The Australian.

“Sideshow Alley has a distinctly Australian flavour and a refreshingly original approach.”

“Superbly colourful production explores the underbelly of ‘carnie’ life and captures the noise, movement and seediness of the travelling tent show.”

“Terrific original songs...”

“Sideshow Alley is a passionate and invigorating contribution to the Australian stage.”

Nigel Munro Wallis. ABC Theatre Review.

“Sideshow Alley” is the kind of show that only comes along once in a while ... uniquely Australian.”

“Clever and refreshingly authentic, making the entire theatrical experience a true delight.”

“In short there is little to criticise about this uniquely home grown musical. It tells the story of a way of life that has all but died out in this country but it raises in its storyline themes that are as pertinent now as they were in the fifties.”

“An exciting start to a new season of theatre and musicals.”

“Sideshow Alley, the musical is a solid and idiosyncratically Australian entry into the world of stage musicals.”
